

The Youth Sector - who is leading, where is it heading?

Youth Work Unit Yorkshire & Humber in Partnership with Agilisys are hosting a seminar exploring some of the challenges facing today's youth sector and possible solutions.

Between 3.30pm & 4.30pm, there will be an opportunity to hear three short presentations from the Local Authority Areas who participated in Delivering Differently earlier this year—Doncaster, Sheffield & Wakefield. If you would like to join us for only this part of the day, please indicate on the booking form.

Regional Youth Work Unit, Yorkshire and Humber

Stringer House, Lupton Street, Hunslet, Leeds, LS10 2QW

☎ 0113 2703595, theunit@youthworkunit.com,

www.youthworkunit.com

Facilitators:

Susie Alexander

Leeanna Pitt

Who is it for?

Anyone interested in exploring ways to deliver differently. Senior Offices in Children's Services, Those with a responsibility for delivering the Youth Offer,

Heads of Voluntary Organisations and Partnerships.

Date & Time:

Tuesday 22nd September 2015, 10.30am —5.00pm
(registration from 10.00)

Venue:

Swathmore Education Centre, 2-7 Woodhouse Square, Leeds, Yorkshire LS3 1AD

Cost:

£25—£60—see booking form for details

Booking: Booking forms will be forwarded to those expressing an interest in attending the event

Bio:

Susie Alexander—Partner

Susie joined Agilisys Transformation, after a career in NHS, Local Government and the Voluntary Sector. She has worked at senior level in Consulting for over 8 years and before that held senior roles with NHS and Local Government organisations. She is responsible for Transformation engagements nationally. She has extensive experience of working at board level, providing guidance on & leadership of strategy, target operating models, organisation development, service improvement, transformation and large scale change programmes – particularly in the areas of Health and Social Care; Social Inclusion; Communities/ Neighbourhoods; Policing, Regeneration and Housing.

Leeanna Pitt | Senior Consultant

Leeanna is an innovative local government specialist, passionate about delivering strategic customer service transformation by digitising business operating models. She brings a proven track record of managing council wide projects and corporate change. She is experienced in delivering business transformation by optimising processes and operating models. Leeanna also has a fresh approach to communicating ideas and engaging stakeholders.

Programme:

10.00 am	arrivals, registration— refreshments
10.30 am	session one—mapping the landscape
12..30 pm	lunch
1.15pm	session two—planning the future
3.30	comfort break - refreshments Delivering Differently presentations & question and answer sessions
5.00 pm	finish

Regional Youth Work Unit, Yorkshire and Humber

Stringer House, Lupton Street, Hunslet, Leeds, LS10 2QW

☎ 0113 2703595, theunit@youthworkunit.com ,

www.youthworkunit.com